Dear Parents and Carers,

Congratulations to Mia Cummings who received a Highly Commended at the CWA Public Speaking in Narromine last week. I would like to wish our NAIDOC Public Speaking team (Summer Cook, Dakariah O'Connor, Amy Motley, Amber Dutton, Billi Smith and Kyona English) who are travelling to Dubbo on Wednesday, all the best for their day.

Congratulations to the NPS Choir for their participation in the Dubbo Eisteddfod last week. Thank you to Miss Devereux and Mrs Milligan for their dedication to rehearsals.

Mr Bonsing is off to Bourke with our 5/6 Football team this week. We wish them all the best in the Bourke Outback Challenge on Wednesday.

The painting of the Blue Module, Red Module and Purple Module is now complete. If you have not been to school to have a look, please feel to visit.

We did have an additional 4 children commit to the Canberra excursion, bringing our tally to 18 students participating. I am currently in discussions with the bus company to see if the excursion can still run. I will send a note home with students as soon as I am aware if it can go ahead. All money paid will be refunded if the excursion is cancelled.

Tyrone Hall commenced an Aboriginal dance program at NPS today. This opportunity was extended to all students at Nyngan Public School. Your son / daughter will be taking part if they chose to. Tyrone will continue to visit NPS an additional 9 times to implement the workshops. As a result students will be competent in perform the learnt dance. Please contact NPS if you require greater detail. This activity is RAM funded.

Parent Workshop
Tuesday 21st June 10.00am – 12.00 noon

All parents and carers are invited to a workshop about helping your children with reading and numeracy. This is the follow-up session from the previous workshop held on 17th May.

In reading, we will talk about the importance of the home reading programme and how to develop your children's skills.

In numeracy, you will learn about some games and activities that you can play with your children. The activities will be fun and will help children to practice what they have learnt at school.

Morning tea will be provided.

You will have an opportunity to watch your children at work in their numeracy groups after morning tea.

Dental Clinic visits the school regularly and is a free service. If you would like your children to see the dentist you must ring 1300 552 626 to make an appointment. When you ring please make sure you have your medicare card with you.

Last Thursday the Nyngan Public School Years 3-6 choir went to Dubbo to compete in the Eisteddfod. The choir sang two songs, Country Roads and Titanium. There was certainly a few toes tapping in the audience as people recognised the songs. It was an opportunity for the choir to perform in front of a large audience, and get used to being on a big stage. The experience will stay with us all forever. The choir is a voluntary extra curricula activity, undertaken during recess and lunch. The girls have committed to being in the choir and attending events. Their unwavering commitment is commendable. Well done Nyngan Public School Choir!

Last Tuesday 31st May, 4 NPS students travelled to Narromine United Services Club to participate in their annual CWA Public Speaking Competition. Those students were: Mia Cummings, Jacob Martin, Angela Tang and Kadie Norris.

Parents and grandparents of our students also attended. It was particularly heart-warming watching our students present their speeches to an unfamiliar audience. Congratulations to Mia Cummings for achieving Highly Commended in the Stage 2 section. Every NPS student presented their speeches with pride and commitment. It was a pleasure to witness them present. Well done Mia, Jacob, Angela and Kadie.
