29th August, 2016

Dear Parents and Carers,

Nyngan Public School was the place to be last week with Book Week celebrations, a Book Fair, a Netwaste visit, the Premier's Spelling Bee spell off and the Lachlan Principal Conference.

Staff and students enjoyed another Book Week Dress up day last Tuesday with many book characters coming to life. Many thanks to Miss Abberely for her organisation of our parade and coordination of the Book Fair.

Congratulations to Mia Cummings and Ty Skinner from Stage 2 who will progress to Dubbo for the next stage of the Premier's Spelling Bee, along with Stage 3 representatives, Toby Palmer and Zane Bailey. Thank you to Mrs Giffin for coordinating this event.

Sue Clarke returned to NPS to share her knowledge of sustaining a healthy environment through recycling and maintaining a healthy garden. Children in all classes took part in workshops last Tuesday.

Nyngan PS was inundated with 36 Principals, 2 Directors and many consultants last Thursday and Friday as we joined with Nyngan High School to host the term conference. I would like to congratulate staff and students as many Principals complimented the friendly welcome given to them by staff and students and the learning that was evident as they walked through the school.

I was fortunate enough to have Connor Ryan, Zane Bailey, Taliah Sherring, Ashton Bodanski and Kyona English visit the Principals Office.

Over the course of the week senior students had been busy surveying and recording survey results using a variety of graphing tools. They were also able to share their very descriptive alternate chapter endings.

Thank you for visiting!!
