P & C Fete was a huge success. Thankyou to the wonderful P & C committee for the organising and running of the fete. Also thankyou to all the staff, families and community members who helped out on the night.

Easter Hat Parade

Easter Hat goes to the Nyngan Hospital

K – 2 students had a wonderful time visiting the lovely people at the hospital. They even got to see the Easter Bunny.

Bango visits Year 3/4

This week Year 3/4 had a visit from Bango. Bango is our school mascot. We found out that he loves to play hide and go seek and his favourite book is about wild horses. He likes to read when the class is doing writing. Bango is always watching and handing out rewards. Bango loves the pillows in our room, he even has little sneaky sleeps while we are out playing. Bango has joined in with class activities and helped Mrs Johnson and Mrs Bright look for great behaviour. Here are some photos showing what Bango has been doing with us throughout the week.

Kindergarten

Today Kindergarten had fun pretending to be Mr MacGreggor, with the help of some Year 6 students, designing, constructing and evaluating a trap to catch Peter Rabbit. They worked well in their groups and made some pretty good traps! Thanks for a great day Kinder, Mrs Milligan :)
